Dear Brothers Quarrel
Whence Come We?
The Alcoholic Kat
Making a Mahatma

Mr. Root offers "rules to prevent piracy in war." The trouble is that war is piracy. When nations cannot get what they want by commerce, or honest agreement, they get out and take it by force. If they can, as the old pirates went to sea and took the merchantmen.

Often the pirates fought over the spoils. That happens also with nations. It is distressing to see those dear brothers, France and England, accusing and denouncing each other. Halford says, "French submarines are planned to destroy commerce," meaning England's commerce, scattered all over the world.

"No," replies France. "Unless our dear old friend, perfidious Albion, becomes too overbearing, then the submarines will be useful."

England tells France she will build invulnerable craft to destroy submarines, including a great fleet of trawlers, and that she insists on unlimited aircraft operations. The aircraft carrier, you know, is a ship carrying hundreds of flying machines knocked down in the hold. These machines come up, are assembled in a few minutes, and sent off each with its little load of dynamite. Think about it in connection with Japan, instead of allowing its boy statesmen to enter into all sorts of crippling agreements.

If France and England, war brothers that have just finished carving up Germany and Austria, cannot remain friendly for a few months, what is going to happen to the artificially-made, queerly assorted brotherhood—Caucasians, Mikado, John Bull, France?

Scientists, gathered in Toronto to discuss heredity, announce that they expect soon to explain the "origin of species," how the various kinds of animals, and finally man, got their start.

Did all men come from the same ancestor, appearing in the shape of a few hundred thousand years ago, as Isaac and some others say, did primitive men of different types appear at various times on different parts of the earth, thus originating the various races, Mongolians, Aryans, Semites, Africans, etc.?

If it turns out that we not only descend from animals, as Darwin says, but that the different human races descended from animals closely related, but different, that will explain some of our foolishness. Dogs hate foxes and wolves, because they are related, but different.

Your humble little brother, the banana fly, is the most useful creature, investigation of heredity. That's interesting, also the few that devote attention to bootleg whiskey will like to know that happens to white rats in a scientific alcoholic experiment. A white rat has brains and you can't make him drink whiskey. He doesn't, like it. But you can bring the poor creature up in an atmosphere in which he constantly inhales fumes of alcohol. Scientists announce that white rats compelled to inhale alcoholic fumes, against their will, only have one-third as many children as sober rats.

What's more, the children and grandchildren of the alcoholic rats, even though allowed to be sober, are stupid, inferior. What will happen to human children whose parents drink more bootleg whiskey, it is easy to guess.

Those that study the growth of civilization will find interest in India, where a gentleman named Gandhi advises fellow Asiatics to get rid of England by passive resistance to any British rule. Gandhi, a quiet, determined person, is beloved by his followers to be "Mahatma," or "wonder worker."

Legends are growing up around him in the Indian villages. He can stop bullets, they do not burn him, he can heal diseases, replace legs and arms that were cut off, and make them grow. He CAN'T do these things, of course, but they think he can.

had to be waded to rescue Machetti and his children.

Patrolman Casey and Ladderman Flynn forced open the front door of the Machetti cottage and carried the children down an extension ladder.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

They then went back and brought out two elderly persons in the house.

Added to their difficulties the hose burned repeatedly and the fire

The firemen themselves also were soon covered with ice that made their every movement difficult. The ice also broke down the overhead electric wires and for a time threatened many of the workers.

[illegible][illegible]

Five persons were forced to flee in their nightgowns into one of the bedrooms of the house where the robbery occurred. The other who was killed destroyed the home of John Barclay on Spring street, East Weymouth.

Barclay, his wife and their three children were asleep on the upper floor of the house when the robbery was abase. They were unable to escape and were killed by the robbers by shooting.

The family owned an automobile. The Barclay family is being temporary cared for by neighbors. The first robbery was believed from an overheated store.

4 Families Driven Out in Fall River Blaze

Fall River, Dec. 30.—One woman was overcome by smoke and her husband was killed in a fire which killed a damage of $100,000 in the city of Fall River, Mass., this morning.

Philip Philip street, where the fire broke out, was found to have been in the room of the woman who was killed. The fire was caused by her family and those of Thomas Hough, Chester Hill and Arthur Ross, who were living in the same building. The first started in the ceiling of the room of the woman who was killed. The fire spread rapidly and the firemen were unable to stop it.

McMullan was ordered to remove the occupants of adjacent houses. It was for ten minutes that the fire raged.

The fire was for ten minutes that the fire raged.

There have been a number of burlaries in the neighborhood, and Lead was taking no chances.

BROOKLINE MAN IS DEAD FROM 'MOONSHINE'

Body Found in New York Hotel; Others Made Ill and Blinded

George L. Henry, travelling salesman, of No. 78 Coolidge street, Brooklyn, is believed to be one of nine victims of poisonous holiday "moonshine" in New York city. Five other victims have been blinded or made seriously ill by the stuff they drank. Tuesday he went to New York on business trip, staying at the Hotel Cumberland. His body was found

The police also found the name of a man with an address and the notation "whiskey" in Henry's handwriting. The analysis shows wood alcohol in the stuff discovered in Henry's room, a finding likely to follow.

The last person to see Henry was Edward L. Rits, a friend, who called at his hotel Wednesday. Rits told the police that Henry had complained of being ill.

CAPTURED IN STORE AT POINT OF TOY PISTOL
Providence, Dec. 29.—A toy pistol seized so much like the real thing when it was pointed at him that a youth who had broken into the store operated by Harry Parsanian at No. 2161 Elmwood avenue surrendered at once. When the merchant attempted to telephone to the police for assistance, however, the boy broke away. Parsanian left the telephone, grabbed the fugitive and held him while a woman of the house called the aid. The prisoner gave his name as Tom—P. H. Smith, seventeen years old, of Thurston street.

SOMERVILLE POLICE IN AUTO COLLISION
Somerset James M. Lynch and Pauline Louise M. O'Connell and George R. Allen of Somerville, were severely shaken up and narrowly escaped serious injury today, when the police touring car in which they were returning from the Psychopathic Hospital was struck by an auto which collided at Mount Auburn and Leitch streets, Cambridge. The collision drove the rear end of the police car on to the sidewalk, damaging both rear wheels and throwing the officers in a heap. The other car was owned by the Boston Storage Company and was operated by Harry L. Brown of No. 22 Royal avenue, Cambridge.

"Breath Inspector" to Keep Tabs on Police Force
By Associated Press.
Yonkers, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Notice of a "breath inspector" to be appointed by the police force, inserted in the police roll call card yesterday as a joke, was taken seriously by the officers. The police said that the "breath inspector" would sniff at all policemen every four hours, and that cents of drops, winter-green or peppermint would put a black mark on the record of the offending officer.

WARRANTS FOR GOLDEN WEST SAILORS
Members of Crew of Seized Run Schooner Face Arrest Under Dry Law
United States Commissioner Nelson today issued warrants against several persons, whose names were withheld in connection with the seizure of 6,000 gallons of alcohol, which it is alleged was being carried on the schooner Golden West, which was held up yesterday in Massachusetts Bay by the revenue cutter Albatross and customs officials.

QUINCY HOUSE BELLBOY FINED $50 FOR ASSAULT
Quincy, Mass., Dec. 29.—A bell boy at the Quincy House was fined $50 in Municipal Court today for what Judge Dowd called "an outrageous assault." On Ellen G. Clark of Elmira, N. Y., a guest at the hotel, a mysterious woman in a black entered the hotel at the same time as Clark, declared Carey, testifying in his own behalf. She went toward the elevator while Clark was registering and Carey followed her, he said. On an upper floor, he said, he was struck by the woman. The latter testified that Carey, whom he thought was Clark, followed her, struck him without reason. Judge Dowd remarked that it was ridiculous to assume that Carey had to employ bellboys for slouching. Carey appeared at the trial.

THEY RAID LYNN AUTO SUPPLY STORE
Thieves broke into the store of the Davison Auto Supply Company, on Broad street, Lynn, today, and carried away $100 worth of tires and other supplies. A steel lattice gate and a heavy door were broken open by the thieves to gain entrance. They landed their loot into an automobile, but could not start it. They said the driver of another car gave them a key to get their engine started, which was done. The police have a good description of the thieves and say that they are members of an "organized" gang of automobile thieves operating from a base in Boston.

TWO IN COURT ARE HELD IN AUTO THEFT CASE
John J. Griffin of Providence was in Municipal Court today, charged with stealing autos belonging to George S. Furness of Boylston street, Brookline, and Richard Pearlstein of Pleasant square in Park square. The machines were recovered in Fall River and James Stuart of that city was also arraigned today, charged with receiving stolen property. Each pleaded not guilty and the cases were continued to January 16.

PASSAGE RESERVED BY BALFOUR FOR JAN. 14
Washington, Dec. 29.—The Associated Press—Amin Arthur P. Balfour, head of the British selection for the peace conference, has reserved passage on a steamer sailing for London on January 14. It was stated by a British spokesman today, however, that there was no idea that Mr. Balfour would attend the conference until it had completed its work.

GOVERNOR NOT TOLD CURTIS WILL RESIGN
Governor Cox said today he had received no intimation that Police Commissioner Curtis intended to resign. He said he assumed Mr. Curtis would have informed him if he had any thought of quitting. A similar report has reached Governor Cox at least five times this year. "Somebody ought to know more about Mr. Curtis' plans than either Mr. Curtis or myself," he said.

of the well known Beacon Falls "Top Notch Brand"

The Other Day Something Happened. Now I'm Going to Make a Wide Open Confession.

I FEEL that it's an act of common decency, wrung from a busy man, and no matter how busy you may be, I guess you'd better read it.

For years THE LITERARY DIGEST was nothing to me. I had too much reading matter, and too many ways to spend my money.

I thought THE DIGEST was simply one of the multitude of magazines, and the family has half a dozen, or more, lying around the house all the time.

Some fate got after me a month or so ago and began to hand me one knock after another.

The first one that made a dent, I think, was at the meeting of the lodge. An argument arose over Soviet Russia's interest in the Washington Arms Conference. I couldn't hold up my end; the other man knew more than I did, and made the fact plain to several members who were listening. I remarked, not very pleasantly, "You seem to know more than the newspapers." My ill nature brought only a cheerful laugh. "Oh, yes," he said, "THE LITERARY DIGEST explained the whole thing last week." Of course I hadn't seen it.

Coming in on the train a day or two later, my seat companion asked me what I thought of the great plan to make Manhattan Island and the City of New York six miles longer and to construct the most wonderful model city in the world on this new land. "Never heard of it. Pipe dream!" I replied. "Oh, no; Congress has passed the bill, and the President has signed it. Plans are already being drawn. The article in last week's LITERARY DIGEST describing it reads like 'The Arabian Nights.'" I hid my discomfiture with a polite, "Is that so?"

At the dinner table, yesterday, two of the children began discussing the question why great quantities of corn must be burned as fuel in America, while millions are starving in Russia, China, Armenia, and elsewhere.

It seemed strange to hear them quote fact after fact, and opinions of this or that authority which I hadn't read anywhere. I began to be afraid they would ask me some question I couldn't answer. At length I stopped them short by saying, "That will do now; where did you hear all that, anyhow?" And this is what I got in reply, "Why father! That is our high school topic from THE LITERARY DIGEST this week." I had forgotten reading in a letter some time ago that THE DIGEST is used as a text in several thousand high schools throughout the United States.

Harold Bell Wright, the Author, Tells the Reason:

"To attempt to gain anything like a clear view of the world's activities through the fogs of prejudice and the clouds of self-interest that hang always about the local newspaper is a hopeless task. For one who would look with unobstructed vision upon the moving world-forces that make for or against the welfare of human kind, The Literary Digest is a mountain peak in a clear sky.

"Because The Literary Digest gives me an unclouded view of the world's doings, because it places me in an atmosphere above prejudice and local self-interest, because it separates for me the grain of the world's thought from the chaff of idle words, and cleans it from the dirt of sensationalism, I appreciate and enjoy it. It is a Godsend to all who feel that they have work to do that requires clear thinking."—HAROLD BELL WRIGHT, Author of "The Shepherd of the Hills," "Helen of the Old House," etc.

Wife is fond of visiting and has a good many friends among nice people. Lately they have been talking a lot about canning and drying fruits and vegetables, and about new methods of home economy. I heard her telling somebody over the 'phone the other day about a wonderful substitute for eggs in making cakes. Then I heard a little exclamation of dismay and a few broken sentences of embarrassment before she hung up the receiver. In a minute the trouble was all up to me: "Mrs. Page says I mustn't use that egg powder, because it hasn't any egg in it at all. She says I ought to read the article in my LITERARY DIGEST this week telling all about such things. 'My' LITERARY DIGEST! She seemed to take for granted that we have THE DIGEST. I was ashamed to tell her we haven't. Everybody seems to have it except us." Of course, I couldn't admit such a thing. At the same time, I couldn't deny having seen THE LITERARY DIGEST in most of the nice homes we had visited.

Election day I started early from the house to vote. My neighbor was getting out his new car. It was a beauty. "I thought you couldn't decide which make to get," I remarked. "How did you settle the matter?" "Why, yes, it did seem like a deadlock between my wife and me, but the advertisement of this car in last week's LITERARY DIGEST was so convincing, we agreed, as soon as we read it, that this was our choice. It's getting to be rather a habit with us, you know, to find answers to things in THE DIGEST." The matter-of-course tone in which he spoke, made me wonder what he would say if he knew I didn't read THE LITERARY DIGEST.

Last Sunday morning the dominie mentioned a request made by some church member that the pastor would "not preach about disarmament, as the subject had been worn threadbare." Then he began to ask questions and tell facts that showed a wider sweep of the subject than his hearers had ever dreamed of. I declare, if he quoted THE LITERARY DIGEST once, he must have quoted it half a dozen times.

Is the answer to everything in THE LITERARY DIGEST!

This was getting on my nerves. The next morning at the office I noticed THE DIGEST on my partner's desk with his personal mail. In the most casual manner I asked him to let me take a look at it. I didn't mean to start anything!

"Do you mean to say you don't read THE LITERARY DIGEST!" he exclaimed.

"Why, is there anything surprising about that? I don't pretend to read every magazine that's published," I said, rather nettled.

He came back at me strong. "That's just it; you try to read too many magazines, and too many newspapers, no doubt. You might better spend less time with some of them rather than miss reading THE LITERARY DIGEST. You simply can't get on, nor hold your own anywhere without it. I know I couldn't. It's the only magazine in the country that keeps you informed,—fully and rightly informed, I mean, free from all editorial bias,—on the big live matters of disarmament, and business, and every other vital topic. Surely! look it over and see for yourself."

I retired to my own office and sat down, face to face with the magazine that had been challenging me everywhere I went during the past month. An hour was gone before I knew it. I was surprised, startled, thrilled. The world seemed bigger to me, and closer. Things that had puzzled me became clearer.

My mind seemed to be opening. I had thought of THE LITERARY DIGEST simply as one of a multitude of magazines which did not concern me. Here it was, now, revealed as THE ONE which I had been really needing all this time. I certainly had been missing a good thing.

Well, I hurriedly sent off my check for the $4.00 which would bring THE LITERARY DIGEST to my home for a whole year. Thank goodness, that's done! Of course, the joke is on me. It was my own fault. I might have enjoyed THE DIGEST long ago. Now, as an act of neighborliness, I'm making this confession; and I'm telling you, also,—you who haven't been reading THE DIGEST,—if you now sign and mail an order for it, as I did (when I woke up), you can call it a good day's work.

OVERSEA AIDES OF SHIP BOARD ALL-AMERICAN

Movement Started by Lasker Nears Goal Aimed at
by Chairman

London, Dec. 29. (By the Associated Press.)—The European staff of the United States Shipping Board will be composed entirely of Americans at the beginning of the new year as a result of the Americanization policy inaugurated by Chairman Albert P. Lasker when he took over the direction of the board last June.

At that time only 15 per cent. of the board's employees in Europe were Americans, the policy of retrenchment which has been pursued as a campaign policy of replacing sailors by Americans has effected a 75 per cent. reduction in the number of employees in the European field.

Nowhere else in the world is the reduction of the staff, officials of the board here and today adequate facilities would be continued in thirty parts.

The Cuba, City of Baltimore and the BROOKLYN, City of Baltimore, are the only two ships of the board which are not American.

LOLITA ARMOUR DEFENDS DR. LORENZ

American Physicians Jealous of Foreign Specialist,
She Declares

By Associated Press.
Chicago, Dec. 29.—Publication of an article in the journal of the American Medical Association that the cure of Lolita Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour of Chicago, by Dr. Adolf Lorenz of Vienna "was not a cure," today brought a statement from the former Miss Armour, who is now Mrs. John J. Mitchell, Jr. In 1903 and 1904 operations were performed by Dr. John J. Mitchell, Jr. In 1903 and 1904 operations were performed by Dr. John J. Mitchell, Jr. In 1903 and 1904 operations were performed by Dr. John J. Mitchell, Jr.

"I cannot say that a perfect cure has been effected in either hip, but the hip treated by Dr. Lorenz is far better than the other one, with which he could do little because it had been too badly misshapen," she said. "I myself believe that had it not been for the work done before he was called

Queen's Brother May Be Governor-General of Ireland

By Associated Press.

London, Dec. 29.—Discussion of candidates for the governor-generalship of the Irish Free State under the pending Anglo-Irish treaty is being revived, the latest name mentioned in connection with the post being that of the Earl of Athlone, younger brother of Queen Mary.

The Earl was in line for the governor-generalship of Canada and would have succeeded the Duke of Connaught in that office in 1914 but for the outbreak of the war.

In my case he could have effected a complete cure.

"I cannot say that a perfect cure has been effected in either hip, but the hip treated by Dr. Lorenz is far better than the other one, with which he could do little because it had been too badly misshapen," she said. "I myself believe that had it not been for the work done before he was called

SPEEDY REPORT EXPECTED IN POISON CASE

Possibility That Body of First
Husband of Mrs. McCaw
May Be Exhumed

Providence, Dec. 29.—Announcement of the findings of the autopsy which Medical Examiner Sigurd E. Bristol has made on the body of Miss Mrs. McCaw, who died last Spring and whose step-mother, Mrs. Ruth McCaw of Bristol is now under arrest for attempting to poison the girl's brother, Leon, will probably be made before the end of the present week.

The body of the girl was exhumed from the North Cemetery last Wednesday night. The autopsy was performed by Medical Examiner Sigurd E. Bristol and Dr. W. F. Duffy of Bristol, who was in attendance on the girl during her illness.

AWAIT DOCTOR'S REPORT.
When the autopsy and best completed the girl's organs were sent to state chemist Strickland for chemical analysis. Dr. Sigurd E. Bristol has made public at the end of forty-eight hours.

When Mrs. McCaw was lodged in the Providence County Jail, waiting trial the Bristol Court met Monday on a charge of assault with intent to murder. She has admitted guilting poison in the foot of her stepson, according to Chief of Police Kelly of Bristol, but she will not discuss the daughter's death. Leon is recovering from the effects of the illness.

In case the girl is found to have been poisoned, Mrs. McCaw will doubtless feel herself stigmatized as a "poisoner" in the most astounding case of "wholesale poisoning" in the history of the State. Officials intimate freely that if poison is found in the body of the woman's first husband, William Seymour, who died several years ago, he exhibited some of the same symptoms.

GIRL'S SYMPTOMS SIMILAR.
Leon's life was saved solely through the clever intervention of Dr. Duffy, who, suspecting something wrong, laid a trap into which Mrs. McCaw walked so readily that her conviction on the attempted poisoning charge is said by officials to be a foregone conclusion.

$100,000 Liquor Robbery in Chicago

By International News Service.
Chicago, Dec. 29.—Rare wine and liquors to the amount of $100,000 were stolen from the $1,000,000 Glenside house of Charles A. Stoenich, multi-millionaire wholesale milliner, in a daring raid early today.

The raiders, heavily armed, broke into the palatial home despite the network of burglar alarms, and overpowered the guards there. They cracked the liquor vault.

According to the report made to Chief of Police John Connelley of Glenside, the robbers took the liquor away in a big moving van.

After she had been arrested, it was revealed that Stoenich, before her death, and exhibited exactly the same symptoms that Leon had displayed, and that her death had been accompanied by the same mysterious circumstances which surrounded the boy's illness.

Stoenich is said to have died of "cancer of the stomach," although no autopsy was ever made on his body.

WORCESTER MAN HELD AS SLAYER PLEADS "INSANE"

Alric Wetting, Worcester youth under arrest in New York on the charge of having shot to death Carl Moller, a Bronx jeweler, and desperately operating Mr. Moller, will offer an insanity plea as his defence. Ernest Wetting, Moller's brother, has been retained by the prisoner's family to conduct his defence.

When arrested on the charge of murder before Superior Court Justice Martin in New York yesterday, Wetting announced: "Not guilty, on the ground of insanity."

MASSAGE "DEN" OWNERS ARE INDICTED

Campaign Launched in Chicago to Rid City of Undesirable Establishments

By Associated Press.
Chicago, Dec. 29.—Grand Jury indictments of three women owners of massage parlors based on evidence of what State's Attorney Robert F. Crowe terms "gross and increasing secret immorality," were announced this morning.

The indictments and most pretensions of these massage parlors which featured female attendants are said by investigators of the State's Attorney's office to be in the Loop district.

"There are hundreds of these places in the city," said State's Attorney Crowe. "Some of them, of course, are legitimate and respectable, principally those catering exclusively to women. But I can see nothing respectable about a place where girls bathe and massage men."

At some of the places it was found that the "tired business man" made engagements with the girl attendants for after business hours.

Hugh Johnson, manager of one of the largest downtown massage parlors, was one of those indicted.

Mattie Edelman, who has been operating a parlor in the Garfield Building, in the heart of the Loop, was also named in an indictment.

Mrs. Edelman also was indicted as the keeper of a disorderly house, after the investigators had noted that she had tried to burn the establishment connected with a downtown parlor.

OUT OF WORK, ASK
TO BE SENT TO JAIL

Worcester, Dec. 29.—Unable to find work, Sol Hendrickson and Stanley Combsworth asked that they be sent to jail when arrested in Worcester here today charged with vagrancy. The men claimed they had searched for work for weeks without success. Hendrickson was given a three-month sentence.

STRANGER ENDS LIFE AT INN IN MEDFORD

Unidentified Man Shoots Self to Death as He Stands on Steps of Inn

A well-dressed, unidentified man, apparently about fifty-five years of age, shot himself to death as he stood on the steps of the Medford Inn, directly across the street from the Medford police station, at Main and South streets, Medford.

He was rushed by the officers to the station house, but death had been instantaneous, a 22-calibre revolver bullet piercing his right temple and lodging in the brain.

Two letters were found in the man's pockets. One was addressed to the hotel undertaking room, in Medford, and directed that suitable burial services be performed. The other was addressed only "to my sister," and contained nothing, police say, which would reveal the man's reasons for suicide. No clue as to the identity of the slayer could be obtained.

The man was described as being of medium height, with his gray hair and a small gray mustache. He was very neatly clad, the officers said, and was apparently a refined, well-to-do man. The letters were signed with the initials "F. W. P."

NEW BRITAIN CHURCH IS
SWEEP BY $15,000 FIRE

New Britain, Conn., Dec. 29.—As worshippers took their places for early mass today fire was seen in the rear of the Church of St. John, the Evangelist. Rev. Father Leden directed those present to leave and sent altar boys for fire apparatus. He removed the altar vessels and left. The altar escaped the fire which burned the rear wall and roof of the edifice. The loss is $15,000.

DORCHESTER TEACHER DIES OF DIPHTHERIA

Fresh From Paris Latest Word From Marie Suzanne

PARIS, France.
EXCEEDINGLY good in a winter when Paris favors all shades of brown is a coat of dark brown velvet, collared, cutled and otherwise made rich with kinds of fitch fur. The bodies is plain, with its wide sleeves faced in golden brown, and the fullness of the skirt starts at each side of the plain front panel. The coat is of the new length, which Paris has already accustomed as to its gowns for evening.
The present vogue for caracul is made to include all its shades, from black to the soft platinum gray. One graceful model that is much worn has its front and back sections fitted, while the sides are full and loose. The collar, cut in one with the coat, and the bell sleeves, are edged with ermine.

Export duties here today at 40 cents a pound, 7½ cents less than a week ago.

DECLARE MORATORIUM FOR CLOSED ROME BANK

Rome, Dec. 29 (By the Associated Press).—The Banca Italiana di Sconto, the doors of which were closed yesterday, has been granted a moratorium by court action. It has not been established that the bank actually has failed, and there is a tendency in some quarters to believe that the crisis may be overcome.

TEAMSTERS SEEK STRIKE AUTHORITY FROM CHIEF

Representatives of Truck Drivers' Union, No. 21, have wired the president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters at Indianapolis for permission to strike. This action followed an unsuccessful effort to come to an agreement with the Team Owners' Association representatives over the wage scale for the coming year. Ward is expected from the International within forty-eight hours. If sanction is given only a general by the employees of the present wage scale will cover a strike in Boston, union officials said.

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON BOSTON SOCIETY

First Corps Cadets Assembly at the Armory Draws Smart Set

Of Boston society folk who arrived in New York on board the White Star liner Olympic from Southampton and Charleston were Frederick H. Sears of Beacon street, George H. Davis and the Rev. and Mrs. John Wallace Rorer (Helen Jones) of Chelsea street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Perkins of Commonwealth avenue are at the Beacon prior to sailing for Europe on the Olympic. Bessie, the name hotel, also from Boston, are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ames.

Lady Cecil Wemyss of London, who has been at the Wemyss University Club, on East Fifth second street, in New York, for several weeks, will leave London next Monday for a three weeks' visit in Boston.

The dance that is to be given at the Art Association in Newbury, N. H., tomorrow night as a New Year's Eve party, is not only to be a continued affair, but is to be a unique as well as a grand one. It is to be one of the events of the winter season. The dance is being arranged by the committee of the naval and winter club and is to be held in the ballroom which has been planned for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott of Boston and Newbury will give a luncheon on Monday at their New Year's Eve party, in honor of Colonel and Mrs. H. Anthony Iyer of Providence. Colonel Iyer is to speak at the Art Association that afternoon.

EDWARDS SENDS HIS GREETINGS TO ITALIANS

Through a delegation of Italians of Boston who took greetings to Major General C. R. Edwards, commanding the First Corps Area, the general sent the following message to the Italian people of this city:

"May the New Year bring added fulfillment to the hopes and ambitions which led you to adopt America as your home and the home of your children. The true to the teachings of the Americanism which accepts America as a nation of all the people joined together for their mutual advancement and protection. Consecrate yourselves to a better understanding of America and its ideals. Let part of your joy in the New Year rest in what we all are seeking—higher and closer devotion to the nation's good. In general, may the coming year bring you all happiness, peace and prosperity."

Miss Ruth Putnam, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Putnam of Brookline, is a prominent member of the younger set.

Miss Putnam, who is a member of the Sewing Circle and the Vincent Club, is a sister of Mrs. Henry L. Sigourney (Helene Putnam) and of George Endicott Putnam. Her fiancé is William W. Claflin, Harvard '20.

MISS RUTH PUTNAM

By BETTY ALDEN.

SOCIETY was much in attendance at the first of the formal assemblies given by the First Corps Cadets, which took place last evening at the armory on Columbus avenue.

Members of the army, navy, Marine Corps and National Guard all were there, uniformed, which, together with the gaily-colored frocks of the feminine dancers, presented quite a brilliant scene. Dancing, which began at eight and lasted until midnight, was furnished by the regular First Corps Cadets Band.

The list of patronesses, not a few of which were drawn from the ranks of the smart set, included the following: Madeline Harcourt Ames, Archibald Blanchard, John H. Good, Raymond D. Fales, Helen J. Almy, Rose Whittier, Horace E. London and Robert D. W. Ames.

The First Corps Cadets, which is the oldest active military organization in the country, has an authentic history from the year 1741, and it is believed that the corps was in existence prior to 1775. From those early colonial days when the corps was known as the "Governor's Company of Cadets," until the recent World War, when the cadets went to France as the 101st engineers, the organization has had an enviable military record.

The active commanding officer is Lieutenant Colonel Harold Blanchard, whose overseas service won him the Distinguished Service Cross as well as several French decorations, including the Legion of Honor.

The remaining assemblies to be held by the First Corps Cadets will take place on January 24, February 22 and March 26.

A few additional words about the lieutenant-colonel's war record might not be amiss, for of all the Boston men claiming "first family" connections who won distinction for themselves during the war, Mr. Blanchard was one of the outstanding ones. The latter, by the way, is a graduate of Harvard, class of '21, and makes his home at the exclusive Tennis and Racquet Club on Boylston street.

Colonel Blanchard went to France in April, 1917, as a major, commanding the second battalion of the 37th Infantry of the 32nd, or All-American Division, which division was made up of troops from most every State in the Union, 4,000 of the unit being sent from Camp Devens to Camp Gordon, where the division was organized.

With the 27th he fought through all of the engagements in the Toul sector, at Marbache, St. Mihiel and in the Meuse-Argonne, where he won his D. S. C. and an additional Croix de Guerre with a palm.

On October 7, Colonel Blanchard was gassed, but stayed with his battalion throughout the remainder of the engagement. His citation, presented to him by General Pershing, reads: "To an officer who was always a model of courage, and who, while seriously ill, stayed for fourteen days with his battalion and led them to the assault of the enemy's strongly fortified positions, which he succeeded in taking."

Mrs. Charles Inches, who closed her house, "Glen Adams," in Medford, shortly after Thanksgiving, has not opened her town house at No. 214 Beacon street, this winter. She is living at Dolby House, No. 63 Church street, Cambridge, with her daughter, Miss Louise Inches, who is a student at Radcliffe.

Mrs. Inches' oldest son, Henderson Inches, lives with his young wife (Elizabeth Ayer) at No. 166 Itveyway, in Brookline, while another son, Charles E. Inches, makes his home with his wife, Margaret J. Carter, on Haverford street. Both young men are graduates of Harvard and members of the Honor-Mat Club.

Holds at Miami, Florida, are opening up day. The Huttons have already had their first dinner and dance; the Planktons, at Miami Beach, will open Saturday evening, and the Broad Palm on January 2. It seems as though various members of the smart set who comprise the Winter colony at Miami and in the vicinity have an opportunity to take part in motion pictures, for Paul Brunet, the president of the Pacific Motion Picture Corporation, is at present staying at the popular resort. Mr. Brunet is, in fact, looking over the grounds throughout with a view to sending a company there to make pictures requiring tropical set-ups.

COX AWAITING ADMIRAL DAVIS

ESSEX REPORT IS BURIED IN CAMBRIDGE

ON SCHOOL

Governor Delays Action on Trustees; Matter Before Grand Jury

Governor Cox will await the report of the Essex County Grand Jury before he takes any action looking to the removal of the Essex County Agricultural College trustees on the ground of negligence and incompetence.

Governor Cox expects that an official copy of the Grand Jury report will be sent him, as the Governor appoints four of the seven trustees of the school against whom charges of negligence and waste of funds in the expenditure of school funds had been lodged.

The Grand Jury recommended that Governor Fred A. Row and Mrs. Eva Bacon the head bookkeeper, be removed. Two sets of books were kept at the school, the Grand Jury charged. Some of the books were altered so that a large amount of cash would be accounted for, it was charged.

The trustees appointed by the Governor are George C. Thurston of West Newbury, George W. Crosby of Salem, Ralph W. Bates of Lynn, and Justin E. Varney of Lawrence.

Governor TO ADDRESS LEGISLATURE WEDNESDAY

Governor Cox will deliver his message to the new Legislature next Wednesday noon. The Governor will address a joint session of House and Senate in the Hall of Representatives because of the memorial system now in force, the brilliant success of formally that attended all past inaugurations will be omitted.

Sailors from Battleship North Dakota Fire Volley Over Grave

Blue-jackets and marines from the battleship North Dakota formed a firing squad today at Cambridge cemetery, where the body of Rear Admiral C. H. Davis, who died in Washington on Tuesday, was laid to rest in the family lot.

The body was escorted from the South Stratton by Rear Admiral Alfred W. Gleaves, commander of the Charlestown Navy Yard, Lieutenant Commander Donald W. Hamilton and three lieutenants of the battleship. The honorary pallbearers were Rear Admiral Gleaves, Rear Admiral Boston C. Decker and Captain P. C. Mondy. N. J. Lockwood, Ben R. Bierer and H. K. Cates.

STAGES ROBBERY IN JAMAICA PLAIN SPA

Police are looking for a sixteen-year-old boy who stole a gun in the face of Joseph J. Patterson at the Loyal Spa, No. 2080 Washington street, Jamaica Plain, and then returned him a roll of $1000. Not a shot was fired, but the robbery was a serious one. Patterson opened his eyes to the theft, but closed his jaws with a snap when the silent thief in a flash snatched it. He made an outcry. "The stranger had entered the store early, purchased a package of cigarettes. He gave a $20 bill in payment. When Patterson pulled out his money, the stranger snatched it, saying, 'Give me the change, I'll take it all.' He did."

Report Soviet Russia Is to Go Upon Gold Basis

By International News Service. (Sigs. Dec. 29.—Soviet Russian money is to be put upon a gold basis in 1922, said a dispatch from Moscow today, telling of the results of All-Russian Congress of Soviets. The commissar for finance, Krestinsky, outlined the financial reforms which the Soviet will put into effect. He revealed that in 1921 the Soviet issued 10,000,000,000 paper rubles, equivalent about 200,000,000 gold rubles. The new paper money will be based on the government's gold reserve fund, Krestinsky said.

U. S. AUXILIARY NAVAL PLAN ACCEPTED

Limitation Proposal Meets Favor, France Also Delaying Approval

Washington, Dec. 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The American proposals for the limitation of auxiliary vessels to a maximum of 1,000 tons displacement was understood to have been virtually agreed upon at the morning session today of the arms conference naval committee. All of the powers' delegations accepted the American proposal except the French, who, while holding formal approval in advance, said such approval was expected.

Held for Jewelry Theft

Patric Devlin, twenty-five years old, was arrested in a Columbus avenue store today, charged with moving a trunk of cash in hand of young men and girls, six of whom are held in $10,000 bail each in connection with a series of thefts in the back Bay.

NEW BUILDING FOR SUPREME COURT URGED

Bar Association Delegation Outlines Pressing Need to Governor

Headed by President Henry F. Hurst, a delegation of the Boston Bar Association on today urged Governor Cox to incorporate into his budgetary address a demand upon the Legislature for the construction of a new building to house the State Library and the Supreme Court.

While Governor Cox did not definitely commit himself on their request, he said that "if times were normal" he would not hesitate to demand the taking of all the buildings between the present State House wing grounds and Joy street, on Beacon street. He feels that a new building at this site would add to rather than detract from the general appearance of the State House.

Mr. Hurst and Attorney Thomas W. Proctor and James D. Colt, who accompanied him, said that the Supreme Court quarters in the Pemberton square courtyards were already overcrowded. The State Library has already outgrown the space allotted to it in the State House.

A proposal early this year for a new building to house the courts, the library and the State Department of Commerce was rejected by the Legislature on the ground of economy.

BEAUTY IS GIVEN YEAR FOR THREATENING POLICEMAN WITH GUN

WHEN Good Fellows Get Together! "Gentleman George" who won the championship of Austria in 1919, and never lost a game, is seen here with his Austrian and fellow competitor.

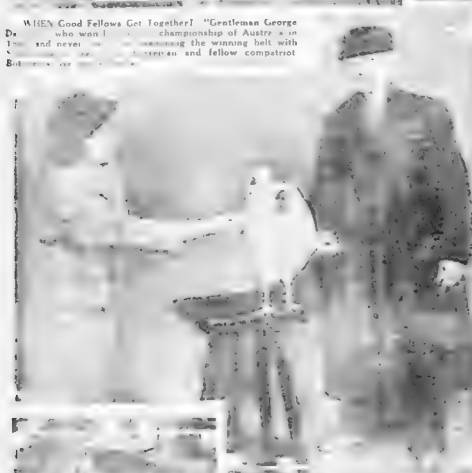

A BULLY IDEA! Charlot Molina (left), one of Spain's mad meladors, is being signed by Ted Rickard to fight a "bummer" bullfight in Madison Square Garden. Charlot raised $30,000 for a free milk fund in Texas by this method. (Underwood.)

WINIFRED DEVOE, the George Washington University artist, who drew the pictures which drew the wrath of faculty. Mustn't draw any more pictures for college magazines. (Int.)

SPEED! That's Us. Miss Elise Mueller, women's national speed skating champion, may soon come to Boston to "do her stuff." Recently defeated by handicap field in N. Y. for quarter mile. (N.Y.)

TO ROOSTER and a Chicken! A rooster had a rooster who would do every thing. A certain woman who was a model of it, and its rooster and farmer are now appearing in a Broadway show. Photo shows a showgirl "kidding" the rooster. (U.S.)

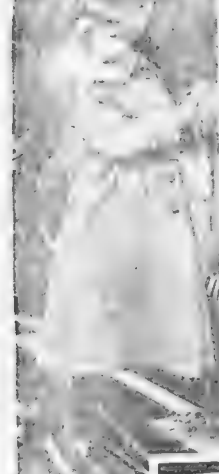

IRRUTE! Dog hero of the World War, who died while serving in the trenches, will have this monument dedicated to their memory at Harolds Camm Cemetery, N. Y. Will cost $2,500. (U.S.)

GERTRUDE, the well-known Artelt, is creating some splash at Miami, Fla., where she has been entered in a series of water sports. Hails from Philadelphia, which folks overlook because of her excellent swimming. Been a champion since 1917. Only 20. (Underwood.)

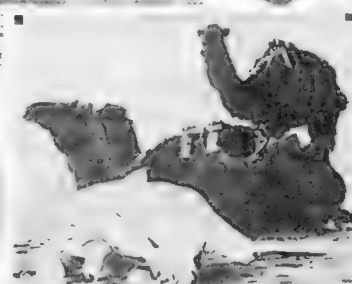

SHE WANTED TO PLAY! Miss Josephine Fay was sentenced to one year in jail at Chicago because she threatened a policeman with a pistol. She said she was intoxicated. Her dramatic play failed of its purpose. (Underwood.)

SPIKING IT! That's the way the kiddies of Volendam, Holland, get to school. Hiking it is the American fashion. But these Netherland youngsters have a fine time pushing themselves along the frozen canals in their odd sleds by the means of sharpened spikes. Note the smoothness of the ice. (Int.)

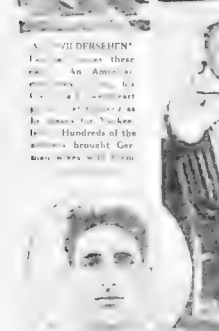

HOLD YOUR BREATH! John Carleton of the Dartmouth Outing Club, winning the Buck trophy at Lake Placid with a ski jump of 110 feet landed himself in his place landing nearly down where the throng is below. More thrilling than stunt flying. (Underwood.)

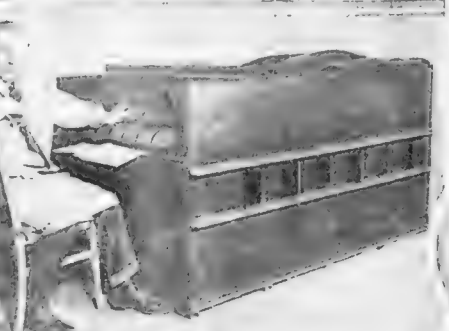

PRAYER TIME IN THE DESERT! The Temple of the Arab is often paved with the shifting sands of the desert, for no matter where he is when the hour of prayer arrives, he prostrates himself and devoutly goes through his religious duties. Even the camel is down, through exhaustion, we fear. (U.S.)

ATTENTION, Pretty Motorist! Thousands of photographs have been recovered in the Test. Every one not used will be returned. If you haven't received yours back, have hope! Above is Miss Hazel Quinlan, 678 Tremont St., Boston, who is awarded $5. (U.S.)

MIGUEL TOPRALVA of San Francisco, who defeated Carlos Mores, champion of Argentina, and thus became singles champion of South America. (Underwood.)

THE COLOR OF MUSIC! Thomas Wilfred and his clavichord, an experiment in estheticism. The organ, instead of playing notes of music, plays colors. The organ is hidden, and when the player strikes a note it is registered on a large, specially constructed screen. If the note is resonant and harsh, the color is harsh, perhaps fiery red. If the note is soft and sweet, perhaps an azure or an orchid register. Instrument has been exhibited in N. Y. (Underwood.)

ONE of the First Ladies of the Land. Mrs. Mary Frances, 78, of the ancient Passamaquoddy, Eastport, Me., who enjoys a cool smoke while making baskets. A talented basket maker. (Underwood.)

J. RANDOLPH COOLIDGE SPEAKS AT KING'S CHAPEL

GLOBE says: "Griffith's 'Orphans of the Storm' his best... Audience murmured in ecstatic whisper, 'He has surpassed himself again.' It is a wonderful film

One of the best 'thrillers' ever seen on the screen... Like reading the most exciting novel. Every few feet something new happens... Great scenes."

TRANSCRIPT says: "Griffith still the master of all... Time and again he rises to great heights... A Griffith at his best... He sets upon the screen the rising of all Paris... the mad measures of the Camargoine

One of the best 'thrillers' ever seen on the screen... Like reading the most exciting novel. Every few feet something new happens... Great scenes."

TELEGRAM says: "One would say it was impossible for D. W. Griffith to make another picture any better than his past productions, but he has accomplished this miracle and given us his masterpiece... 'Orphans of the Storm' is the finest tribute to art and history the motion picture world could give."

TRAVELER says: "Told with such sympathetic touch of art becomes unconsciously lost in the story. Great scenes have been made out of every possible situation, and one sits through 2 1/2 hours without being bored a second, and the end comes in before one realizes it has actually arrived... the tear changes to a smile, or vice versa, in the twinkling of an eye."

AMERICAN says: "Orphans of the Storm at Tremont Theatre is wonderful... Surpasses everything that he (Griffith) has ever done, and furthermore, it is far away the finest screen drama ever seen in this country... I was simply overpowered by the terrific forces this man turned loose in the theatre... ride to the rescue is used with enormous effect... remarkably human and engrossing love story."

HERALD says: "It is an engrossing play. To a moving story Mr. Griffith has added swift action, historical interest, and a masterly sense of suspense and climax... Scenically Mr. Griffith has outdone himself."

POST says: "Orphans of the Storm allures... finish and smoothness... shown last evening without a flaw... almost continuous action... displayed the unmistakable imprint of Mr. Griffith's skill."

ADVERTISER says: "D. W. Griffith has clinched his claim to be regarded as the world's master of cinema spectacles in 'Orphans of the Storm'... amazing visualization."

and WINCHELL SMITH, peer of playwrights, says: "It didn't seem possible, but Mr. Griffith has made a picture better than 'The Birth of a Nation' or 'Way Down East'."

17. $\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{1}{2} = \frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{4} \times \frac{1}{4} = \frac{1}{16}$ more

The following are winners of one dollar each in the Boston American for the 1914 contest.

Gingerbread
Put $\frac{1}{2}$ cup brown sugar in dish and stir. Add 1 egg, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup boiling water in dish and stir. Take 2 large cups of flour and $\frac{1}{2}$ tea spoon ginger, 1 teaspoon baking powder and add to the above, and put 1 heaping tablespoon shortening and 1 pinch of salt.

Sweet Potatoes, Southern Style

Select a sufficient number of round sized sweet potatoes and boil them until nearly done. Drain and let stand uncovered to steam. Remove skins and cut in slices. Put two tablespoonsful of oil in a frying pan, and when hot lay in the potatoes. Sprinkle lightly with light brown sugar, add two tablespoonsful of vinegar and cook until brown.

MRS. D. McNALLY.

"Either I am neglected altogether or I am abused to death."

As a result I get sick sometimes I nearly die. And then I am scorned for not being 'normal.' "The trouble is, generally I don't get normal treatment. Being human, I need air, sunlight, food, food that will turn me up. My accent I get a little air and sunshine, but for lack of food, I am miserable."

Men and Women, feed your hair with

Open Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful, bright child. Even a cross, feverish, constipated child loves its "fruity" taste, and mothers can rest easy because it never fails to work all the sour bile and poisons right out of the system without griping or upsetting the child.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottles. Mother, you must say "California."

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, one and many at first—yes, but mainly new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It is good to the skin, too, and keeps it cool and moist, thus helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes this life-long hair shine like the sun, bright, lustrous, and just twice as

FINANCE AND BUSINESS

In the time approaching when January imports will be reported, it is probable that we will buy more than we sell.

The pessimistic opinion is that this will not happen either in the form of a large surplus or a large deficit, and that, as the new countries of Europe get international programs, they will be able to give us a large export balance.

What might be called the minority opinion is that in the near future there will be a large surplus of exports. I cannot see how this can be.

France has made remarkable progress in balancing her trade account. In certain months there has actually been a balance of exports.

Then look at Germany's monthly export balance. It has been shrinking. For the first eleven months of this year our exports were valued at $2,500,000,000. This year the corresponding figure is under $1,000,000,000.

Contrast our export balance at the end of last year with the corresponding of this year with those for recent months.

What is to be regarded by some as probable that this tendency toward the wiping out of our export balance will continue.

The most important, the broadest reason for this is that we are a creditor nation on a tremendous scale.

Second—Almost every country on the face of the earth is raising large debts, but putting them on credit in our debt, and involving the resources of large nations still in debt.
